The relic arrived in Spain when, due to the persecutions suffered, Pope Sixtus II entrusted the piece to his deacon. This one, originally from Huesca, took it to his native land. From there it was moving through the Kingdom of Aragon until the chalice arrived in Valencia in the Fifteenth Century.

Ana Mafé is doctor in History of Art, passionate and expert in the Holy Chalice, creator of the Holy Grail Path, also called the Route of Knowledge, or Path of the Peace.

This exclusive experience that Ana offers to our guests, lovers of history, art and mystery, opens the way to amazing discoveries about the millenary history of Valencia and the life of our ancestors, through the enigmatic tour of the Holy Chalice throughout the times and territories.
