One of the most important maritime villages of Europe, with its varied “modernist” architecture and typical buildings that were the Valencian “Barraca”. An old fishermen’s and sailor’s area which still retains the essence of its streets.

Thematic routes for groups and customized experiences to discover our culture, architecture and gastronomy, walking or cycling, guided by the team of “Paseando por los Poblados de la Mar”.

Please, consult the current offer as the programs may vary depending on the season of the year.

According to your preferences, we contact you with your guide ideal.
